For its fifth season, online comedy show Hindsight Tonight promises a familiar format with exciting tweaks. Muziani shares, "We're adding social media subtitles, enlarging the story window, and playing with motion graphic visuals that really pop. When I started Hindsight, I aimed for a throwback vibe, but now we're upgrading the look. The comedy remains the same though. We'll be as subversive and smart-alecky as ever in 2024!"

Hailed by fans as a "best series to watch" favorite,

Hindsight Tonight blends current news events with Muziani's sharp commentary and visually engaging humor. As Executive Producer, Writer, and Host, Muziani acknowledges the unique challenges of putting together each episode.

"Wearing all the hats around here is liberating, but my ultimate goal has always been to contribute to a successful writing team or comedy series," said Muziani. "Sometimes my acting career gets in the way, and this year has been a banner one, featuring major commercials and a role in the upcoming Ghostbusters: Frozen Empire sequel, due out on Easter."

While juggling production and performance duties for Hindsight Tonight, Muziani also appeared in major commercials for Paycom, Caesars Resorts, and Wawa Food Markets. Plus, he co-starred on the series finale of Amazon Prime Video's The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel, opposite Emmy Award winner Alex Borstein.

The much-anticipated season premiere of Hindsight Tonight drops on December 31st, 2023, offering its "familiar but different" format of bite-sized, three-minute episodes available on hindsighttonight.com, YouTube, TikTok, and damianmuziani.com. Hindsight Tonight with Damian Muziani also streams on DBTV, Stripes, Red Coral, and Tribe networks.
