NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, UNITED STATES, December 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Viral country rocker Gwen Levey & the Breakdown will headline Nashville's Women Unite! concert at AB Hillsboro Village on January 8, 2024, the night before the Tennessee General Assembly's 113th Session convenes to redraw the Senate map. The event will showcase Levey's hit women's rights anthem "Barefoot & Pregnant," and it will also act as a benefit for the Community Resource Center's Tornado Relief efforts.

Tickets for the Women Unite! show are free and available now via AnzieBlue.com's ticketing page, but a suggested donation of $50 goes to the CRC's support for victims of the recent middle-Tennessee tornadoes.

Nashville Scene recently heralded Levey's "arena-ready" new EP 'Not The Girl Next Door' as a "release you don't want to miss." Its centerpiece is "Barefoot & Pregnant," which the Scene called "a retro country banger that mocks the repeal of Roe v. Wade." The single has seen over 5 million views since its September release, on top of an 150% increase in Spotify listeners during that period.

The Women Unite! show is 18+ and begins at 7pm on Jan. 8. The venue, AB Hillsboro Village, is located at 2111 Belcourt Ave. in Nashville. An hour of free parking is available at the garage next door.
