Dudley DeBosier continues its commitment to education by annually offering $10,000 in scholarships to high school seniors. This initiative underscores the firm's dedication to strengthening the community through educational support. Additionally, two LSU Law students are awarded the Dudley DeBosier Advocacy Award Scholarship each year, with attorney Chris Keyser representing the firm to recognize the deserving law students.

Supporting Nonprofit Organizations

In February, the Dudley DeBosier Difference Donation proudly recognized Faith House, Inc. as its Nonprofit of the Month. Faith House, a 501(c)(3) organization and domestic violence crisis center, serves seven parishes throughout Central and South Louisiana. The organization provides shelter, safety, empowerment, and advocacy to survivors of domestic violence.

Empowering Through Action

Dudley DeBosier actively empowers individuals and communities through various programs. This included providing adaptive bikes to families through the McLindon Family Foundation and engaging with schools and organizations like Dunham's Lunch & Learn and the Nell Shehee Foundation's Operation Kindness.

Community Awards and Recognition

The firm proudly received the Community Partnership Award at the Thrive Foundation Founders Day Luncheon. Dudley DeBosier's active participation in events like the National Police Week Giveaway demonstrates its commitment to supporting local law enforcement and fostering community connections.

Leadership Development and Advocacy

Dudley DeBosier takes pride in contributing to leadership development through initiatives such as the Dudley DeBosier Leadership Academy. This free bi-annual training conference aims to empower nonprofit leaders, fostering collaboration and community outreach.

Motorcycle Safety Awareness

In alignment with its commitment to safety, Dudley DeBosier supports the Motorcycle Awareness Campaign (MAC), covering MAC memberships to promote motorcycle safety. The firm's dedication to community well-being is evident in its various initiatives, reinforcing its position of support across Louisiana.

Impactful Giveaways

Dudley DeBosier continues its community engagement through a series of giveaways. Some highlights include an exclusive New Orleans Saints fan experience with free tickets, airfare, and hotel accommodations for an away game. The 12 Days of Christmas Giveaway 2023 spread holiday cheer by awarding 12 lucky Louisianians $250 gift cards. Addressing rising food costs, the Thanksgiving Grocery Gift Card Giveaway helped provide relief to families. The Car Seat Giveaway promoted child passenger safety, allowing Louisiana families the chance to win one of 20 Evenflo Tribute Convertible Car Seats. In support of education, the Back-to-School Gift Card Giveaway distributed 12 Amazon gift cards, each valued at $250, to assist teachers and families. The Bookstore Gift Card Giveaway also celebrated the joy of reading, underscoring Dudley DeBosier's commitment to nurturing young readers in the community.
