Activate Interactive Pte Ltd ("Activate") has been honoured with the COVID-19 Resilience Certificate. 17 Activate staff were also presented with COVID-19 Resilience Medals for their invaluable contribution in developing and implementing the Swab Registration System ("SRS"). The outbreak of COVID-19 brought about a pressing need to regularly conduct swab tests for early detection of the virus in individuals to minimise the risk of spread. When Singapore recognised the urgent need for a systematic and efficient method, it turned to Activate to develop SRS.

The Activate team then developed SRS using Agile methodology with critical features including registration and attendance taking for clients undergoing swab tests, providing different appointment bookings, and auto-scheduling Rostered Routine Testing (RRT) appointments for company staff to undergo periodic swab tests. SRS also allows the uploading of Point-of-Care Testing (POCT) and Antigen Rapid Test (ART) results and sending SMS and email notifications to clients, among other notable features. To date, SRS has supported more than 200 Test Centres island-wide, 25 million appointment bookings, and onboarded more than 50,000 companies.

Joel Chin, Chief Executive Officer of Activate, said, "This certificate is a testament to Activate's relentless dedication and unwavering drive. It recognises the collective efforts of every individual within our organisation, acknowledging their steadfast commitment. This recognition fuels our dedication to harness technology in crafting innovative solutions that benefit individuals and contribute to our nation's Smart Nation vision. My heartfelt gratitude extends to our exceptional team for their ceaseless hard work and effort. Victor Ang, Head and Vice President (Health & Co-Development), said, "My heartfelt congratulations to our recognised staff and sincere gratitude to the remarkable team who made this recognition possible.
