MIAMI, FLORIDA, FL, January 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, the NFL launched the Inspire Change collection, a new sports fashion line in support of the Inspire Change fund. This fund was established in 2020 to support organizations working to promote positive change in communities.

The Inspire Change collection includes hoodies, caps, joggers and more. These products are designed with colors and patterns that have symbolic meanings, such as black for unity, green for hope, and white for equality.

100% of revenue from sales of products in the Inspire Change collection will be donated to the Inspire Change foundation. The foundation has supported hundreds of organizations across the United States, including organizations specializing in education, economics, social justice, and more.

"The NFL is committed to driving positive change in communities," said NFL President and CEO Roger Goodell. "The Inspire Change Collection is a way for us to demonstrate that commitment and support organizations working to create a better world."

The Inspire Change collection is now available for purchase at NFLShop.com and at NFL Pro Shops nationwide.
