

OutplacementPro Announces New AI and Upskilling Features

OutplacementPro announced the addition of new features and enhancements to its award-winning approach to outplacement services.

DES MOINES, IOWA, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OutplacementPro, a division of Propositions, Inc. and a rapidly growing talent transformation firm, announced the addition of new features and enhancements to its award-winning approach to outplacement services. These features include new career coaching and placement capabilities that securely and safely use the latest advances in Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the addition of a robust Knowledge Center with over 7,000 learning modules for candidates to upskill, retrain, or certify for new skills in high-demand areas.

OutplacementPro was recently recognized by Manage HR Magazine as one of the top outplacement services companies in the industry. In 2024, OutplacementPro will be adding several new features that will enhance a candidate's ability to quickly find and land the job opportunities they desire.

"We are excited to introduce our clients and candidates to our unique Knowledge Center," said Robin Salsberry, President of OutplacementPro. "Because our parent company, Propositions, is one of the top learning content companies, we are now offering our candidates unlimited access to over 7,000 modules and courses that can help them upskill or reskill for more high-paying and in-demand jobs. With courses covering Artificial Intelligence, the latest Microsoft and Google applications, Project Management Certifications, and more, our candidates can upskill or train for the latest job requirements employers are demanding today."

OutplacementPro combines these new features with highly qualified, dedicated, and caring career coaches. This combination of high-tech and high touch provides an unparalleled solution for candidates seeking placement in today's uncertain job market.

"While we have some of the most advanced technologies and learning content in the market, our mission has always been and will remain to provide tailored and customized solutions with the thoughtful support of seasoned career professionals who personally understand the impact and trauma of being laid off or downsized," said Jill Dillenburg, SVP of Sales and Marketing. "There is a lot of confusion in the marketplace about AI. Our Career Coaches know how to help candidates separate the facts from the hype so they can leverage the most effective tools and resources."
