Customization for Agencies:

Custom Domain Access:

Marketing agencies gain the capability to sell widgets under their custom domain, reinforcing their brand identity and providing a seamless experience for their clients.

User Account Management:

The Whitelabel feature allows agencies to maintain control over user accounts, ensuring a streamlined process for widget management within Fouita.

Supplemental Widget-Building Service:

Agencies can offer an additional service by building widgets for their clients' websites, expanding their service portfolio with the support of Fouita Smart Widgets.

Addressing Challenges in Widget Integration:

With the increasing importance of widgets in digital marketing, Fouita Smart Widgets' Whitelabel feature offers a solution to the challenges marketing agencies face in efficiently incorporating widgets into their clients' online presence.

Maintaining Brand Identity:

The Whitelabel feature enables marketing agencies to uphold their brand identity while providing widgets to their clients. Agencies can seamlessly customize widgets with their logo, colors, and branding elements, ensuring a cohesive integration with their clients' websites.

Full Control Over User Accounts:

Agencies have the flexibility to manage user accounts, ensuring a streamlined process for creating and overseeing widgets within Fouita.

With full control, agencies can create widgets that align with their clients' needs.

As widgets become an indispensable tool for engaging website visitors and driving conversions, Fouita Smart Widgets' Whitelabel feature provides marketing agencies with a customizable and efficient solution to meet the evolving needs of their clients.
