

"Theodor Says: Dogs Are People Too!" - A Heartwarming Tale of Canine Companionship and Kindness

LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, December 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a world where the love for animals knows no bounds, Long Island, NY based Maria Dello introduces a charming and enlightening children's book, "Theodor Says: Dogs Are People Too!" This delightful tale, adorned with easy-to-read text and vibrant illustrations by Dello, invites young readers to embark on an unforgettable journey with Theodor the German Shepherd.

Dogs, often considered our faithful companions, are given a new perspective through Theodor's eyes. With an uncanny ability to articulate his thoughts, Theodor sheds light on the similarities between dogs and humans. "Dogs have needs and feelings. They get hungry and need to go on walks and practice training. They also need love and they enjoy making friends. In all these ways, dogs are just like people!" proclaims Theodor, capturing the essence of this heartwarming narrative.

Dello's unique perspective on the bond between humans and dogs stems from her lifelong devotion to these remarkable animals. Growing up on Long Island, she treated dogs as integral members of her family. It was in the gaze of her childhood pet that Maria first thought, "Dogs are people too!" This profound connection and her compassion for animals have fueled her mission to create a better world for them.

"Theodor Says: Dogs Are People Too!" isn't just a story; it's an invaluable resource for parents aiming to instill a sense of responsibility and compassion in their children as they consider pet ownership. Through the adventures of Theodor, children learn that caring for a pet involves more than just providing food and shelter—it's about understanding their needs and emotions, fostering friendships, and creating a bond built on love and empathy.
