“If there's even the slightest chance you'll be drinking or otherwise impaired on New Year's Eve in Austin, grab an Uber promo code on us,” Kevin Henrichson, Partner, Byrd Davis Alden & Henrichson said.

The firm has witnessed firsthand the devastating consequences of accidents caused by impaired driving – particularly common during the holiday season – and is committed to preventing them.

“There are catastrophic consequences with drunk driving, not just for yourself on the criminal side, but for the people you harm and their families. This work is at the forefront of our practice, we see children taken away from parents, parents taken away from children, spouses taken away from each other. There's no excuse, it's so easy to get an Uber and we'll give you credit to do it," Henrichson said.

Texas Drunk Driving Facts:

- One person dies every 7 hours and 2 minutes in a DUI-alcohol related traffic crash.
- In 2022, 28% of all traffic fatalities were alcohol related according to TXDoT.
- A DWI can cost up to $17,000 in fines and legal fees.
