Nuño and Winston are thrilled to have joined forces to bring this one-of-a-kind experience to the Nashville area.

"Nashville, with its vibrant spirit, is the perfect setting for this extraordinary event, where people from all around the world can come together, share in the experience, and create lasting connections," said Adia Nuño, Co-Founder.

In 2017, Adia Nuño made an impactful entrance into the dance scene, leveraging her impressive 15 years of dance instruction and choreography expertise. Channeling her skills, she pioneered advanced cheerleading programs and swiftly emerged as a prominent figure in the country dance community. Nuño has successfully orchestrated multiple thriving dance conventions across the nation, notably establishing the YESSS!! Dance Convention, the largest country dance event in America, boasting an estimated 1,500 attendees. As the co-owner of KickStart Country Events, she has become a key influencer in the country dance scene, actively fostering a national network of dance professionals.

Dance Fest Co-Founder*

Taylor Winston has more than 12 years of experience contributing to the development of communities and events through dance. Initially active in southern California, Winston played a key role in establishing dance events preceding amphitheater concerts. These gatherings attracted hundreds of participants dancing in parking lots.

Subsequently, Winston redirected his focus towards creating the "Dancing with the Thunder" production, aligning with the Country Thunder Music Festivals in Arizona, Wisconsin, and Florida with tens of thousands of attendees. After relocating to Nashville, TN, Winston found a new home at the Nashville Palace, working with management to build a robust dance community at the venue.

Nashville Dance Fest aims to be an unparalleled experience, drawing attendees from around the world to participate in the area's top destination event.
