

New Online Quiz Reveals Personality Traits Using Favorite T-Shirt

T-shirts have evolved into tools for personal expression. Each design becomes a symbol, a representation of who we are and what we hold dear.

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, December 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Connecticut start-up Great American Stuffed Shirt Company (GASS LLC), is launching a one-of-a-kind personality profiling service for T-shirt lovers whimsically named Personal-i-Tee for 2024. After answering questions about their favorite T-shirt, the free quiz provides participants with a playfully humorous personality traits report. The proprietary system, loosely (and humorously) based on existing professional personality inventories and tests, is launching with dozens of T-shirt categories and matching personality profiles already in place. The number of available personality profiles is expected to increase dramatically as more and more people try out the system. Q&A Direct hosts the Personal-i-Tee quiz at: <https://qna.direct/personalitee>.

Personality begins where comparison leaves off. Be unique. Be memorable. Be confident. Be proud.”

Shannon L. Alder
