As Chuck Fazio explains, “As we gear up for the New Year's Eve Gala, one of the most anticipated events of the year, we are very excited to see how Laura's expertise will elevate this and future events at The Forum, making each occasion more memorable than the last.” The Forum's 20,000 square foot venue, featuring four party areas under one roof, will provide a stunning showcase for Ms. Faubus' event management talents, allowing her to develop the gala's masquerade theme to the fullest, including live music, an open bar, hor d'oeuvres, and at the stroke of midnight, a champagne toast with fellow revelers and newfound friends.

Ms. Fabus points out that the Forum's four venues each have their own unique personalities, and will provide the perfect backdrop to welcome in the New Year. She emphasizes, "I am very excited to be able to use all of my skills to provide our gala attendees with an enthralling experience, one where both mystery as well as elegance intertwine. Our incredible decor, a 360 photo booth for guests to capture memories, a DJ for fun and dancing, and our beautiful outdoor patio will only add to our guests' enjoyment for what promises to be an enchanting and memorable evening."
