

ATL Rapper "Dae Dae" signs with new label

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES,
December 29, 2023 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Marquavis Goolsby p/k/a "Dae Dae" known for hit singles such as "Wat u mean (aye, aye, aye)", "Dej Loaf", & "Spend It" Feat Young Thug and Young M.A. has signed a new partnership deal with newly created Blackmon Entertainment for a body of work to be released in spring of 2024 in conjunction with Twenty Two Recordings & Warner Music Group via ADA.

About Dae Dae:

Marquavis Goolsby, better known by his stage name Dae Dae, is an American rapper from Atlanta, Georgia, best known for his 2016 debut single "Wat U Mean (Aye, Aye, Aye)". The song's success led to a recording contract with a joint venture with 300 Entertainment.

Dae Dae released his debut commercial single, "Wat U Mean (Aye, Aye, Aye)" in 2015. He wrote the song while at work, freestyling lines in his head and writing them in his iPhone before calling his producer and recording the song later that day. After signing with 300 Entertainment in 2016, Dae Dae released his debut mixtape, 4 Reasons (2016) which features guest performances from artists including Rich Homie Quan. In February 2016, Dae Dae released the single "Spend It", which was later remixed by Lil Wayne and 2 Chainz. The song was produced by Young Trill Beatz.
