"2024 is already proving to be an exciting time for social good. Our certified Social Good Speaker program has been a great success. The format we assembled is a fast-paced way to get inspired for social good and connect with others to engage them in their mission. I am so excited we already have so many speakers in the year participating in The Social Good Conferences. The topics discussed include Human Rights, Health and Wellness, Finance and Wealth Creation, Real Estate, Development, Construction, Safety and Security, Technology, and more. It's been fantastic to get the support of such inspirational minds such as Marine veteran Brian Tally, Dr. E. Lance McCarthy, Raffles van Exel, Marie Y. Lemelle, MBA, Rose Garcia, Kara Kilian, Barby Ingle, Myisha Malone-King, Army veteran Evan C Smith, Army veteran Kristal Kent, Dominika Budz, Jonathan P. Fairchild, Dr. Denyse Turner, Luke Gaynor, Annie Flores, Leslie Ortiz, Bacely YoroBi, Florence Ollivier Duchamp, Jordi Ben Hamo, Bo Hamrick, Laurence Darmalingom, Marissa Alma Nick, and others to be shared in the future. Be sure to subscribe to our channel on YouTube, The Social Good Movement Series Channel, to be notified of new speakers available. I created this fast-paced way to interact with these Social Good Warriors to help empower our communities. There are many ways to be an activist for social good. Be a part of the Social Good Movement and talk to people in your community about social good."
