In a short period, Miist has written 45 songs, including eight with co-writer Narada Michael Walden (Billboard Magazine's Top 10 All-Time Producers in 2023 and is a Grammy & Emmy Winning Producer, Musician, and Recording Artist). In the past 30 days she has worked with artists with over 20 Grammys. Narada's Tarpan Studios has committed to submit her for Grammy nomination in multiple categories.

The 'Remember Me Again' video was shot on a production stage in Vancouver, BC, Canada, where Miist and her family spend time when not recording at Tarpan Studios in California. The theme - from set to styling - harkens back to the long-forgotten era of the Great Depression.

Interviewed on set, Miist said, "This is the most unique song I have written. Narada sent me a beat track with some amazing rhythms and instruments. I've always loved 'Desert Rose' by Sting, and as I listened to the track, the lyrics 'Remember Me Again' started dancing through the melody in my head, and I realized that I want to be remembered and always in someone's memory. 'Remember Me Again' is the sequel to my second single 'Give Her My Love.'"

In early 2024, fans will delight in the release of four additional singles with accompanying high-production music videos and equally impressive high-profile studio collaborations with soon-to-be-named legendary musicians.
