

Echoes Across Time receives high praise from Manhattan book Review

SACRAMENTO, CA, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carmen M. Oprea's novel "Echoes Across Time" offers a unique and extraordinary opportunity to travel back in time and reconnect with a beloved family member. This heartwarming Christmas story explores the enduring connection between generations, transcending the limits of time.

Sophie's had a rough couple of months after her grandmother's unexpected death turned her life upside down, and things can't seem to get any worse.

That is until everything seems to start falling apart around Sophie, causing her to end up where she never would've imagined.

"Truly reminiscent of a Hallmark movie, I loved the way Oprea was able to take a heavy topic like grief and transform it into a magical, Christmas miracle," said Theresa Kadair, a reviewer at Manhattan Book Review.

"I felt like I was transported into this quaint, picturesque town alongside Sophie experiencing her moments of awe and surprise."
