

Victor Issa Unveils Clay Masterpiece 'Moses, A Life of Miracles' Set to Amaze in August 2024

LOS ANGELES, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Victor Issa, an award-winning sculptor and acclaimed artist, in a spectacular achievement, has completed a 3/4 life-size clay sculpture for bronze titled "Moses, A Life of Miracles." This extraordinary work of art, meticulously crafted over 18 months, intricately chronicles the life of Moses from infancy to his contemplative moments on Mount Nebo.

The highly anticipated reveal is set to take center stage during the August 2024 Camporee event. The commissioning organization, the Center for Youth Evangelism, serves as the sponsor of the International Pathfinders Camporee—an expansive gathering occurring every 4 or 5 years since 1985. With over 40,000 attendees from around the world expected to converge on Gillette, Wyoming, for the 10-day event in August 2024, the theme for this year is "Believe the Promise," featuring the inspiring story of Moses.

"I have long desired to create a sculpture of Moses. When the director of the Camporee, Pastor Ron Whitehead, invited me to consider such a sculpture, I pondered what to focus on, what to include and exclude. It was not an easy choice," Issa informs.

The centerpiece captures Moses on Mount Nebo, reflecting on the miracles that defined his profound relationship with God. Surrounding him are pivotal scenes, including the discovery of Baby Moses, the burning bush encounter, the powerful confrontation with Pharaoh, and more. Issa's goal was to create a piece transcending storytelling, encouraging viewers to reflect on Moses' remarkable life. Moses, who spent extensive time in direct communion with God, fervently longed to see God's face without barriers—an emotion resonating with our desire to see loved ones.

"From an infant, until he closed his eyes on Mount Nebo, the story of Moses is filled with drama, action, tragedy, celebrations, miracles, world-changing events, and tremendous historical and spiritual significance," Issa states.

Created within his recently established studio in Brighton, CO, the sculpture is a testament to his artistic vision and unwavering dedication. Issa navigated numerous challenging decisions, ensuring careful consideration and attention to detail.

Victor Issa, a leading figurative sculptor in America, is celebrated for his unique ability to breathe life into bronze with his hallmark style, "Creating Living Bronze."
