

Vincent D. Smith, African American artist at Clarke Auction, January 14th

New Years Auction, January 14th starting at 10am EST

LARCHMONT, NY, UNITED STATES, January 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Clarke Auction Gallery, a leading auctioneer of exceptional art and antiques, is thrilled to announce in our upcoming January 14th auction the extraordinary opportunity to acquire a work by African American artist Vincent D. Smith (1929-2003). An assortment of periods, mediums, and styles will be on offer.

Vincent D. Smith was a Brooklyn, NY, born artist, painter, printmaker and teacher known for his depictions of black life in America and in his travels to Africa. Within this dynamic grouping, a wide range of themes, from historical narratives and social commentary to abstract explorations of identity and spirituality are depicted.

Among the standout pieces are Lot 55: 'The Angry One' and Lot 61: 'Fishing', whose depictions portray the narrative of African American art.

"We are thrilled to present this remarkable collection that celebrates the vibrancy and depth of African American artistry," says Irving Sanchez
