From the back of the book:

"Embark on a whimsical journey through the alphabet with "Coloring the Craft Brewing Alphabet," a uniquely crafted coloring book that brings the world of craft brewing to life for colorists of all ages. Each page is a delightful exploration of a key brewing term, from 'Ale' to 'Zymurgy', illustrated in a playful, cartoon style that's perfect for young artists and beer enthusiasts alike.

Dive into the vibrant world of hops, learn about the intricacies of fermentation, and celebrate the festive spirit of Oktoberfest, all while adding your creative touch to every page. This coloring book not only offers hours of artistic fun but also serves as an educational journey through the art and science of brewing.

Perfect for families to enjoy together in a taproom, or for craft beer lovers to relax with at home, "Coloring the Craft Brewing Alphabet" is more than just a coloring book--It's an interactive learning experience. Grab your crayons and beers (lemonade for the little ones!) and toast to a journey through the craft brewing world, one colorful letter at a time.

Discover "Coloring the Craft Brewing Alphabet," a delightful creation by our favorite family from "The Great Brew" series: Aaron, JoJo, and their daughter, OG. Owners of The Local Brew Company in Ruskin, FL, they've combined their love for craft brewing with OG's creative spirit. This coloring book, inspired by their family business, is designed to keep OG engaged and learning alongside her parents. It's a celebration of creativity, family, and the joy of craft brewing, perfect for anyone who loves to color and explore.
