“

National Puzzle Day is all about the celebration of puzzles and that's why our website, PuzzleDayFun.com is so cool.”

Jodi Jill

What started out as a simple listing in a magazine called Freebies, led to one of the most important holidays for puzzle lovers everywhere. Finding that people loved puzzles as much as she did, Jodi Jill started this amazing journey of free puzzle sharing that morphed into massive puzzle fun which led to January 29th being National Puzzle Day. Jill's dedication to promoting the benefits of puzzles, such as improving cognitive skills and reducing stress, has made her a respected figure in the puzzle community.

“National Puzzle Day is all about the celebration of puzzles and that’s why our website, PuzzleDayFun.com is so cool,” said Jodi Jill, National Puzzle Day Founder. “I started this with the idea to share with kids of the importance of puzzle playing and it’s been a delightful puzzle experience ever since.” Jill continued, “Puzzle playing is good for all of us, it helps keep our cognitive skills sharp.”

So why do people get ready to dive into the ultimate puzzle bash – National Puzzle Day on January 29th? This mind-boggling tradition has become the event to captivate millions, both young and young-at-heart. Last year a whopping 7 million puzzle enthusiasts joined the fun online, in schools, and in their local communities to play puzzles, and chatted about (yes, guessed it) puzzles. This year promises even more thrilling surprises.

As Jill puts it, “No strings for the puzzle fun, yes, it’s free – really. No emails required. Just come and play puzzles on PuzzleDayFun.com.” Remember, the puzzle fun will last all month long as January is puzzle month.
