- Hensley comes with more than 25 years of Credit Union experience in a wide variety of positions.
- Lamb arrives with a decade of retail experience and is also working towards her Cyber Security endorsement.
- King arrives having spent more than 15 years in Credit Unions and is a freelance photographer in her spare time.

- Hopkins and Wilkinson both come with more than five years of retail experience across a variety of organizations.
- Warren has almost 30 years of financial services experience and returns to CVF after spending nearly seven years at other Credit Unions in Southeastern Michigan.

Closed since June 2022, the Plymouth Branch is nearing completion of a major transformation from traditional teller lines into a high-tech, high-touch branch featuring multiple interactive teller machines (ITMs), a café-style floorplan, and a coffee bar. The Credit Union recently re-opened their drive-up lanes with plans to re-open the branch fully in early 2024.
