

Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities Welcomes New Leadership for 2024

Bradley Wallace heads LATLC's 2024 team, signaling growth. Gratitude to outgoing President Karina Lallande. Envisioning impactful community service ahead.

LOS ANGELES, CA , USA, January 8, 2024
/EINPresswire.com/ -- New Era of Leadership: LATLC Welcomes Bradley Wallace as President

The Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities (LATLC) proudly announces its leadership team for 2024. Bradley Wallace, a legal luminary and philanthropist, ascends to the presidency, culminating a five-year path to this key position. This progressive leadership evolution showcases LATLC's dedication to excellence and strategic growth. Joining LATLC's leadership path, Chandra Spencer steps into the role of Secretary, her diverse legal insight fortifying the team's dynamic capabilities.

Bradley Wallace Assumes Role as President

Bradley Wallace, a distinguished trial lawyer and founder of The Wallace Firm, PC, is recognized for his exceptional track record in managing high-stakes cases and seeking justice for his clients in and out of the courtroom. His expertise, combined with a commitment to giving back to the community, has been instrumental in LATLC's growth and impact in Los Angeles. Wallace, known for his innovative approach and philanthropic efforts, expressed his vision for the organization:

"It is an honor to step into this role and I look forward to building upon LATLC's established legacy of service as well as expanding the support of our partner charities throughout our Los Angeles community. I'm deeply committed to advancing and actualizing our core mission of 'Justice in the Courtroom and Service in the Community.'"

Megan E. Klein President-Elect

Megan E. Klein, set to be President-Elect, is an associate attorney at BD&J in Beverly Hills,

LATLC.org 2024 President Trial Attorney Bradley Wallace

specializing in personal injury and wrongful death cases. Her leadership background at the University of California, Berkeley, and her active involvement in the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles, highlight her dedication to legal excellence and community service.

Griselda Rodriguez Appointed as Vice President
Griselda Rodriguez, the new Vice President of LATLC, is a first-generation attorney with over 16 years in employment law. A Glendale University College of Law alumna, Rodriguez is known for her strong work ethic and dedication to employee rights. Her compassionate approach in guiding clients and her extensive legal practice, including her right to practice in all California courts and the United States Supreme Court, make her a key addition to LATLC's leadership.

Jeremy Tissot Appointed as Treasurer

Jeremy L. Tissot, the new Treasurer of LATLC and founding partner of THE TISSOT LAW FIRM, P.C.,

brings nearly two decades of litigation experience. His expertise in complex litigation and his involvement in charitable activities, underscored by his recent appointment as a Silver member of the Board of Governors of the LA Trial Lawyers' Charities, speak to his dedication to community service.

“

I look forward to building upon LATLC's established legacy of service and expanding the support of our partner charities throughout our Los Angeles community.”

Bradley Wallace, incoming 2024 LATLC President & trial attorney

Chandra Gehri Spencer Appointed as Secretary

Chandra Gehri Spencer, a partner at Elder & Spencer, LLP, brings a wealth of experience to her role as Secretary. Her background as a defense attorney and her dedication to housing and public safety issues make her a valuable asset to the LATLC. Her role will be pivotal in maintaining smooth operations and fostering effective communication within the organization.

Gratitude Extended to Outgoing President Karina Lallande

LATLC extends profound thanks to Karina Lallande, the outgoing President, for her significant impact and growth initiatives during her tenure. Lallande, along with past Presidents Steven Vartazarian (2022) and Daniel K. Kramer (2021), will continue to serve on the Executive Committee.

LATLC.org 2024 President-Elect
Associate Attorney Megan E. Klein

A Forward-Looking Vision for LATLC

With these new appointments, LATLC is poised for continued success and greater community engagement. The leadership transition marks a new chapter in the organization's history, as it looks to extend its philanthropic reach and deepen its impact in the Los Angeles area.

"We are excited about the impact we can achieve under the guidance of Bradley and our new board of directors," stated Lissa Zanville, Executive Director of LATLC. "Their collective expertise and dedication are vital as we endeavor to serve and uplift our community in this new year."

For more information on the LATLC and its initiatives, visit LATLC.org.

Media contact:

Samantha Maez
EPEC Media Group, Inc.
+1 562-201-4357

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

LinkedIn

Instagram

YouTube

TikTok

LATLC.org 2024 Vice President Attorney
Griselda Rodriguez

LATLC.org Treasurer Attorney
Jeremy Tissot

LATLC.org 2024 Secretary Trial
Attorney Chandra Gehri Spencer

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/679136850>
EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.
© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.