Diana Casteel, the creative force behind Pies by Di, shares the genuine inspiration behind starting this venture. "I saw an opportunity to create a space where everyone could indulge in the pleasure of dessert. My aim is not only to provide an alternative but to build connections and a sense of inclusivity around the simple joy of dessert," says

The business holds a firm belief that gluten-free shouldn't equate to taste-free. Through a careful selection of high-quality ingredients, Pies by Di ensures that every creation stands as a testament to the indulgence and richness possible in gluten-free desserts. Diana emphasizes, "People don't have to settle. Gluten-free can be as satisfying as traditional desserts."

Pies by Di has emerged as a welcoming haven for those navigating dietary restrictions, offering a diverse menu tailored to various tastes and preferences. The philosophy, encapsulated in Diana Casteel's belief that "Life is too short to skip dessert," underlines the commitment to providing a delightful experience for everyone.

Founded by Diana Casteel, Pies by Di has not only become a Hendersonville staple - as they ship nationwide. They focus on crafting delicious treats without the constraints of gluten. The emphasis on high-quality ingredients and a commitment to inclusivity define the essence of Pies by Di. With a menu catering to various dietary restrictions, the business aspires to redefine the gluten-free dessert experience, making it a journey of flavors, craftsmanship, and shared joy.
