Chairman*

GatorPAC's endorsement of Majewski comes after a thorough evaluation of all candidates in the race. The committee was impressed by Majewski's strong stance on issues such as limited government, fiscal responsibility, and protecting the Second Amendment. His experience in the energy industry and his service in the military are strong indicators he has the necessary skills and values to effectively represent the people of Ohio's Ninth District.

"We are proud to endorse JR Majewski in the Republican primary for Ohio's Ninth Congressional District," said GatorPAC Chairman retired colonel Rob Maness. "His dedication to conservative principles and his experience as a veteran and in industry make him the ideal candidate to represent the people of Ohio. We have full confidence in his ability to lead and make positive changes in Congress."

Majewski expressed his gratitude for GatorPAC's endorsement, stating, "I am honored to receive the endorsement of GatorPAC. As a veteran and energy industry executive, I understand the importance of limited government and fiscal responsibility. I am committed to fighting for the values and interests of the people of Ohio's Ninth District and I am grateful to have the support of GatorPAC and its Veteran Leadership Fund in this race."

The Republican primary for Ohio's Ninth Congressional District is set to take place on May 4th, 2021. With GatorPAC's endorsement, Majewski's campaign is already showing significant momentum.
