

The Way Pool Building Should Be: Waterside Poolscales Announce Range of Industry Leading Warranties

Katy, Texas – Waterside Poolscales, a leading family-run custom pool building company, is excited to announce its range of industry-leading warranties on all its main equipment components, as well as the shell of the pool. The company's new warranties highlight Waterside Poolscales' commitment to dedicated customer service and helping with each stage of the process, from creating the perfect design and choosing the best materials to construction. Dedicated to offering high-quality, beautiful custom pools that offer families an enjoyable and smooth building experience, Waterside Poolscales warranties include a 3-year warranty on all the main equipment components, which is 3 times more than the industry standard, and a lifetime warranty on the shell of the pool. Both warranties are available with every one of the company's pool projects.

"At Waterside Poolscales, we understand how big of a decision it is to add a pool to your yard, and we think you should be able to feel excited about the project," said a spokesperson for Waterside Poolscales.
