

Ryan Binkley Marks 200th Iowa Event as Presidential Candidate Continues Crisscrossing the State

The Public Is Invited to Attend Any of Binkley's 30 Additional Campaign Stops over the Next Week Leading up to the Iowa Caucuses

DES MOINES, IOWA, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hundreds of Iowa voters are eager to hear about a new vision for America from presidential candidate Ryan Binkley, as he visits their town during his whirlwind tour of Iowa over the next week.

It's the culmination of seven months of campaigning that has taken Binkley to more than 200 different events across the state to get to know the people and issues of Iowa.

Ryan Binkley's 200th event in Iowa featured the presidential candidate with Scott County Republican women.

"Iowans care about America, and they want to see an end to all the division and name calling," Binkley said. "People are really responding to my plans to balance the budget, secure the border and get healthcare costs under control. They know we need a new leader with a new approach."

Interest in Binkley and his campaign for president continues to build, as the campaign releases a full slate of appearances leading up to the Iowa caucuses.

Binkley launched his campaign in April and became the first 2024 presidential candidate to visit all 99 counties in Iowa. More than 80,000 unique donors have contributed to Binkley's grassroots campaign. Binkley is devoting the time, money and resources to appear on the primary ballot in all 50 states and has secured a spot on 28 state ballots to date.

Binkley is co-founder and CEO of mergers and acquisitions firm Generational Group and co-founder and lead pastor of Create Church, both in the Dallas area. As an expert in finance, Binkley is introducing a new economic approach through his campaign proposals to secure the border, balance the budget, and reform healthcare.

"I feel called to share this message that it's time for America to turn back to God," Binkley said. "We need a way to have financial prosperity, to have safety in our nation again, to have a nation where the most hurting are looked after. I feel more empowered than ever to share this message."

The following campaign events include a wide range of activities, from a rally on the eve of the vote and a forum opposing the carbon capture pipeline to a telephone town hall for those who can't attend in person and a chance to sit down with Binkley to enjoy a meal, ask questions and share views.
