

OreVital Labs Unveils Fusion: Dry Salt Therapy and Peptide Biohacking;

EVANS, GEORGIA, USA, January 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OreVital Labs Introduces Fusion: Dry Salt Therapy and Innovative Transdermal Peptide and Biohacking; Leading in the development of transdermal solutions for optimal health and wellness! Now conveniently available in topical form, these peptides can be purchased without prescriptions at OreVital US authorized dealer Sól Himalayan Salt cave and Spa in Evans, Georgia
Featuring:

1. Body Firming GHRP-2 Peptide

Cream, a transdermal solution blending potent peptides GHRP-2 Peptide (Sermorelin) and CJC 1295 Peptide (Ipamorelin) with magnesium in an innovative topical formula.

Mind, body, wellness; where balance becomes the essence of well-being”

Michelle Evans

Traditionally, these benefits were exclusive to injections or oral consumption. However, transdermal administration of GHRP-2 and CJC 1295 provides a safe, efficient, and cost-effective alternative, gaining popularity among athletes and consistently receiving positive customer feedback, with testimonials steadily increasing.

When applied topically, magnesium and minerals facilitate transdermal absorption, ensuring direct delivery of GHRP-2 and CJC 1295 Peptide to deep tissues, cells, and the bloodstream, maximizing the efficacy to target abdominal fat and convert it into lean muscle.

2. Anti-Inflammatory BPC-157 Peptide Cream, a transdermal formulation that combines potent Copper GHK-Cu Peptide with remarkable BPC-157 Peptide and Magnesium in a topical application.

BPC-157 Peptide serves as an anti-inflammatory and employs advanced technology for targeted delivery into body tissues, showing promise in addressing digestive tract issues. Athletes favor it for muscle and tendon recovery, with positive reviews highlighting its remarkable success as an anti-inflammatory solution, providing essential relief and supporting active lifestyles.

Copper peptides serve as antioxidants, protecting the skin from oxidative damage, aiding in the repair of sun-damaged skin, and mitigating the effects of UV radiation. Enhancing skin moisture retention, facilitating tissue repair, and mitigating inflammation during wound healing, this has contributed to its increasing popularity among spa and skincare enthusiasts. When applied to a specific injury or inflamed area, OreVital BPC-157 Cream fosters healing and expedites cell regeneration.

3. Dermal Renewal Wound Healing
Topical Cream presents a groundbreaking solution for sun damage mitigation and accelerated wound healing. Leveraging advanced technology, it deeply delivers potent peptides like Copper Peptide, KPV Peptide, Nicotinic Acid, and Creatine into body tissues for cancer prevention and skin healing.

Copper Tripeptide acts as a potent antioxidant, safeguarding cells from oxidative damage crucial in cancer development and plays a vital role in accelerating wound healing and burn recovery.

KPV Tripeptide, a naturally occurring tripeptide, exhibits remarkable ability in alleviating inflammatory responses, a central feature in cancer progression.

Nicotinic acid contributes to cellular health and metabolism, while Creatine reinforces energy
