AOJ Language School accepts students from around the world, offering cost-effective tuition to make Japanese learning accessible globally. Thanks to their supporters, in just the second year since opening, they have students from 30 countries, with over 150 students studying Japanese.

Nevertheless, in light of recent inflation and fluctuations in exchange rates resulting in heightened labor costs, maintaining the delivery of top-tier

As a trailblazer in the online Japanese language learning industry, AOJ Language School remains committed to delivering user-friendly and high-quality services for Japanese learners.
