

Waterproof Socks Brand RANDY SUN Launches Reflective Ultra-Light & Breathable Waterproof Rain Jacket

Renowned for its bestselling waterproof socks, outdoor apparel brand RANDY SUN is expanding its collection with an innovative reflective new waterproof jackets.

HEBRON, KENTUCKY, UNITED STATES, February 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned for its bestselling waterproof socks, outdoor apparel DTC brand RANDY SUN[®] is expanding its collection with an innovative new waterproof jacket. Lightweight and fully breathable, the waterproof jacket features RS-TEX, RANDY SUN's trademark technical fabric.

To prevent water penetration, the diameter of RANDY SUN[®]'s RS-TEX waterproof fabric is microporous—allowing sweat to disperse through vents. In addition, its seams are fully taped to ensure flawless waterproofing.

Additional features & benefits of RANDY SUN[®]'s new high-performance reflective waterproof jacket include:

- Breathable
Double ventilation holes under the armpits increase breathability.

- Pocket Partitions

Each extra-large pocket features a waterproof laminated zipper—preventing damage to electronic devices and paper documents.

- Adjustable Cuffs

Designed for easy adhesion, adjustable cuffs fit the curve of the wrist to prevent air leakage.

- Easy to Fold & Compact

When folded, the jacket is just 2 cm thick—stores effortlessly in a backpack or pocket.

Covered in reflective strips, the jacket also features a high collar and adjustable hood. Colors include yellow & olive. “We know that functionality does not have to be at odds with fashion,” said David Ammons, Chief Designer, RANDY SUN. “Year after year, we update and refine each style for quality, functionality and attractive design.

Other RANDY SUN® products are certified for use by professional athletes & enthusiasts (for triathlons, beach volleyball, cycling, rock climbing & trail running). With over 20 years of experience in the research & development of waterproof outdoor apparel, the brand is sold in 56 countries worldwide.
