Founded in 1999 by industry pioneer Lee Roberts, Roberts Heavy Duty Towing Inc. has evolved from a humble one-truck operation into a robust enterprise with 66 trucks and 75 employees. Lee Roberts' unwavering dedication has been instrumental in the company's growth and success. Lee will remain involved with the business and will be the Director of Roberts.

Roberts Heavy Duty Towing Inc. takes pride in offering a comprehensive range of services, including 24-Hour Live Dispatch, Light-Duty towing, Heavy-Duty Specialty

Transport & Towing, and more. The company's service footprint spans across Lexington,

Louisville, Mt. Sterling, Richmond, Somerset, and surrounding areas, ensuring customers receive reliable assistance whenever and wherever needed.

The acquisition of Roberts Heavy Duty Towing Inc. brings together two industry leaders, combining their expertise to deliver unparalleled towing, recovery, and fleet management solutions to clients in the state of Kentucky. "After a long thought process and several opportunities, I am honored to have the Guardian Team lead Roberts into the future. It was clear in the process that leadership shared the same core principles and practices that made us so successful over the years." stated Lee Roberts, Founder and Director of Roberts Heavy Duty Towing. This strategic move reflects Guardian Fleet Services' commitment to expanding its service offerings and geographical reach, aligning seamlessly with its vision of providing clients with unparalleled towing, recovery, and roadside assistance services.

"We are honored to continue the legacy of Lee Roberts and welcome Roberts Heavy Duty Towing Inc. into the Guardian Fleet Services family," expressed Scott Crockett, President at Guardian Fleet Services. "Lee's commitment to safety, training, and customer service perfectly aligns with our values, and we look forward to building upon the strong foundation he has laid."
