community to share the light together and listen to some wonderful artists," said Cantor Fishman. "This lineup has been hand-selected to bring forth the message of hope, peace and love. We look forward to sharing these magical evenings with our friends and family and continuing to support each other."

"In my years at B'nai Torah, our community has never come together the way it has in recent months," added Rabbi David Steinhardt. "We are so deeply tied to our people, our homeland, our cultural and religious expression. This series will give us the opportunity to gather to listen to talented musical artists as we reflect on the past and look towards a brighter future."

The 2024 B'nai Torah Congregation Concert Series schedule is as follows:

Who: Dudu Fisher

Date: Wednesday, January 24, 2024 at 7:30 pm ET

Location: B'nai Torah Congregation, 6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton

Prepare for an evening of unparalleled musical experience as we kick off our 2024 Concert Series with the legendary Dudu Fisher. With a voice that has graced stages from Broadway to the synagogues of Israel, Fisher's remarkable talent bridges the worlds of theatre, cantorial splendor, and contemporary sounds. From his acclaimed role as Jean Valjean in "Les Misérables" to his heartfelt renditions of Jewish classics, Dudu Fisher promises a concert that resonates with emotion, heritage, and sheer vocal brilliance.

Who: Soul to Soul

Location: B'nai Torah Congregation, 6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton

Our second spectacular Concert Series event takes audiences on a life-affirming journey from deep oppression to hope, employing centuries of musical traditions of Ashkenazi Jews and African Americans. Soul to Soul was created by the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene, Zalmen Mlotek Artistic Director. In the lyrics and music, Soul to Soul deepens connections and celebrates differences. This will be a concert to celebrate love, peace, and justice.

Who: Cantor Magda Fishman and Friends Celebrate Broadway and Beyond

Date: Wednesday, March 6, 2024 at 7:30 pm ET

Location: B'nai Torah Congregation, 6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton

Join us for an unforgettable evening of Broadway musical hits with our very own beloved Cantor Magda Fishman, together with Maestro Tomer Adaddi. During this concert, the voice that lifts us and takes us to a different spiritual and emotional dimension will come together with a multi-award-winning composer, pianist and music producer for a night to remember.

Who: Netanel Hershtik & Big Band Orchestra

Date: Wednesday, March 13, 2024 at 7:30 pm ET

Location: B'nai Torah Congregation, 6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton

We are honored to present the captivating Cantor Netanel Hershtik, a voice synonymous with tradition and innovation in Jewish liturgical music, with a full orchestra creating a Big Band Sound. Hailing from a lineage of renowned cantors, Hershtik's performances are an embodiment of his rich heritage, combined with a modern touch. His ability to weave ancient melodies with contemporary influences showcases not just his vocal prowess but his dedication to evolving the art form.

About Cantor Magda Fishman

Senior Cantor Magda Fishman is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary's H.L. Miller

Cantorial School in New York. Prior to joining B'nai Torah, she served as the Cantor at Temple Beth El in Stamford, Connecticut. Cantor Fishman brings vibrant experience to Jewish music through a unique blend of traditional and contemporary styles. Over the years, she has built a large and loving following among a wide spectrum of audiences. Her repertoire includes liturgical masterpieces, Israeli songs, jazz, musical theater, as well as her own compositions. Prior to her investiture in May 2011, Cantor Fishman served in the Israeli Army Orchestra as a vocal soloist and trumpet player. She came to the United States as part of the Tel-Aviv Broadway Musical Theater Project and was the recipient of the prestigious America-Israel Cultural Foundation scholarship. Cantor Fishman has performed extensively throughout the United States, Israel, Europe, and Canada. She had a lead role in the Prague State Opera, and she performed during the annual America-Israel Cultural Foundation Gala at Jazz at Lincoln Center and at a National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene event honoring Elie Wiesel. She was featured in Folksbiene's popular Soul to Soul concert at the Central Park Summer Stage and at the Saban Theatre in Los Angeles with Maestro Placido Domingo and Melissa Manchester. She also performs with the cantorial group Divas on the Bima.
