Living for God: Seven Pillars to a Virtuous Lifestyle is a call to live upright in the eyes of God. Today many Christians are seeking their own pathways in life, not demonstrating God's glory and majesty among the nations. As Christians, our light should shine among the world that others see our good works and give our Father in Heaven the glory (see Matthew 5:16). But instead, our light is being overshadowed by selfish ambition looking more and more like the rest of the crowd.
