

Telinta Wins Award for Hosted VoIP Solutions

Telinta was chosen as one of the world's leading solution providers for VoIP service providers for its hosted softswitch and billing platform.

SPRINGFIELD, NJ, USA, January 11, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Telinta, a global leader in cloud-based softswitch and billing solutions for VoIP service providers, today announced that it has been named as one of the world's top providers of hosted solutions for VoIP service providers. The award comes from Enterprise Networking Magazine, who received nominations from the industry and its readers to recognize Telinta.

The award honors Telinta “for providing seamless and personalized experiences that enhance customer satisfaction and loyalty.” Telinta provides a robust portfolio of cloud-based white label softswitch and billing solutions, enabling VoIP service providers around the world to offer Hosted PBX, SIP Trunks, Unified Communications (UCaaS), VoIP calling via brandable Mobile and Desktop Softphones, WebRTC, Remote Work Solutions, and other popular services.

Our hosted solutions, training, and support are truly unique in the industry and we are happy to be recognized as a leader.”

Alex Ferdman, CEO of Telinta

“We are grateful for the opportunity to enable ITSPs and their resellers to participate in the fast-growing VoIP marketplace,” said Alex Ferdman, CEO of Telinta. “Our hosted solutions, training, and support are truly unique in the industry and we are happy to be recognized as a leader.”

This award joins a long history of Telinta’s industry recognition, with prestigious awards in 2015, 2016, and again in 2021. These honors recognize Telinta’s innovative technological advancements, competitive differentiation, and excellence in addressing market needs.
