In "You Have Been Catfished," Wanda Stevens Reilly, a divorced mother of two sons, courageously recounts her own encounter with a cunning scammer who impersonated a military officer, a common occurrence in the realm of online deception. Five years after falling victim to the scam, Stevens Reilly decided to share her story to raise awareness and prevent others from succumbing to similar schemes.

Stevens Reilly's primary objective with "You Have Been Catfished" is to extend a helping hand to those facing similar challenges, urging them to exercise caution and avoid falling prey to online scams. Her firsthand account serves as a cautionary tale, shedding light on the tactics used by scammers and offering practical advice on how to stay vigilant in the digital age.
