As regional director, Curtis will oversee community managers in Charleston, develop goals for her team, contribute to marketing efforts, and assist with welcoming new associations to CAMS. In addition, she'll focus on ensuring that CAMS' top-notch service is maintained throughout the area and continuing to foster relationships with clients.

"I look forward to working closely with our amazing team in Charleston," said Curtis. "It is an honor to learn and grow alongside this talented team in the community management industry."

CAMS Regional Vice President Jeanmare Holjencin, CMCA®, AMS®, is thrilled to see Curtis transition to her new role.

"Nancy has been an outstanding member of the CAMS team from day one," said Holjencin. "She brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our team and clients, making her an invaluable asset to the Charleston region.”
