

Geoffrey Grammer Endorses U.S. Rep. David Trone for United States Senate

GAITHERSBURG, MARYLAND, U.S.A.,
January 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Geoffrey Grammer, a 25-year U.S. Army veteran, psychiatrist and Democratic candidate for U.S.

Congress in Maryland's 6th district, proudly announces his endorsement of U.S. Representative David Trone for the United States Senate.

Since taking office, David Trone has been a tireless advocate for veteran affairs, labor unions, and mental health care. His work in launching the Bipartisan Mental Health and Substance Use Disorder Task Force has brought significant benefits to our communities, addressing core issues that affect our daily lives. He helped introduce and pass legislation decreasing the burden for victims of burn pit exposure so they may be evaluated and treated by the Veterans Administration. U.S. Rep. Trone fought against cuts to VA programs and passed legislation to improve housing benefits for veterans completing their education.

I fully support and endorse David Trone for the United States Senate.”
