festivities with its Big Game Giveaway. Recognizing the deep connection between Texans, football, and the state's vibrant food culture, the law firm aims to enhance Big Game celebrations by giving away 10 $200 Uber Eats gift cards.

Starting Jan. 11, 2024, Texas residents can join in the Terry Bryant Accident & Injury Law Big Game Giveaway excitement by completing and submitting the form at <https://www.terrybryant.com/the-big-game>. The entry deadline is 9 a.m. CT on Feb. 8, 2024. The 10 winners will be randomly selected from all eligible entries on Feb. 8, 2024, and will receive notifications with instructions for claiming their gift cards via email and telephone on or after

Feb. 9, 2024.

Recognizing the significance of Big Game Sunday, sometimes called the food industry's Black Friday, football's big day witnesses a surge in food delivery orders featuring favorites like wings, pizza, and finger foods. Whichever team you're rooting for, this trend highlights the convenience of doorstep food delivery, enabling fans to focus on the game, the halftime show, or the commercials.

"Whether you're hosting a party or tuning in as a spectator, Terry Bryant Accident & Injury Law is here to help you and your family enjoy the Big Game together. This means that 10 lucky Texans can enjoy every moment of the Big Game without the hassle of cooking," stated Terry Bryant, firm founder and President.

Halftime Delights

Ensure food delivery arrives in time for halftime entertainment, as this prime time is perfect for snack consumption. Many viewers take advantage of the break to replenish their plates.

Salsa, Queso, and Tacos Favored in Texas

The combination of salsa, queso, chips, and tacos is at the heart of many Texas Big Game celebrations. From salsas bursting with fresh ingredients to velvety queso dips and tacos with their wide variations of toppings, the Big Game food spread is a mix of flavors that captivates football fans across the Lone Star State.

Wing Frenzy

According to the National Chicken Council's annual Chicken Wing Report, the projected consumption of chicken wings during the Big Game weekend in 2023 was 1.45 billion!

Snack Stadium Extravaganza

In 2022, snack food sales surged 10% to \$616 million during football's favorite game. Some fans take their game day snacks to the next level by creating elaborate snack stadiums, incorporating a combination of chips, dips, pretzels, and other favorite snacks arranged like a football field.

Pizza Tradition

Pizza remains a perennial favorite during the Big Matchup, with the American Pizza Community reporting approximately 12.5 million pizzas ordered on game day in 2017—a time-honored tradition bringing people together for a slice of the action.

"Our Big Game Giveaway isn't just about scoring touchdowns on the field; it's about bringing home a win for our fellow Texans during football's February finale. As we take in the excitement of victory, let's savor those moments with friends and family that make life truly special," continues Mr. Bryant.
