Not only within the nation but also globally, they have carved a niche for themselves in the world of banking and finance. They have come up with a unique digital wallet called PeoplePay. It's a global payroll partner now available in more than 130 countries. So, it's no wonder that they have stood out to be the best in six prestigious categories this year and bagged the awards. Not often do we get a chance to honor a brand with more than two or three categories but the bank has kindled our team of juries. This is an absolutely incredible achievement and we congratulate the whole team."
