Regional Outlook of Global Subscription E-commerce

The subscription e-commerce business has been dominated by North America, primarily the United States. Subscription-based services have seen a major increase in popularity in the United States, particularly in the beauty and personal care, food and beverage, fashion, and digital content streaming industries. The region's supremacy may be ascribed to a number of reasons, including a technologically knowledgeable customer population, ubiquitous internet access, a strong logistical infrastructure, and a culture that values innovation and convenience.
