

J3 Consulting Partners with SAIC to Support Treasury Department's Cloud Adoption

J3 Consulting announced today that it has been chosen by Science Applications International Corp. (SAIC) as the cloud reseller for the T-Cloud contract.

RESTON, VIRGINIA, USA, January 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- J3 Consulting announced today that it has been chosen by Science Applications International Corp. (SAIC) as the cloud reseller for the T-Cloud contract. The T-Cloud contract is a $1.3 billion, single-source, seven-year contract awarded by the Department of the Treasury, enabling the Treasury Department to leverage a modern, flexible, and cost-effective approach to utilizing and consuming data in the cloud. As the cloud reseller, J3 Consulting will facilitate the adoption of enhanced cloud services for the Treasury Department through the offering of a comprehensive range of cloud services, including Amazon, Azure, Google Cloud Platform (GCP), and IBM.

Jeannie Jones-Ledford, J3's President and CEO, said, "This award is a testament to the time and investment J3 has put into building strong relationships with SAIC and leading cloud service providers. We look forward to supporting the Treasury Department on their IT modernization goals, helping them move to the cloud, and we look forward to doing this for other agencies."

She added that working with SAIC, a company committed to including small businesses in their proposals, has been a rewarding experience for J3. She highlights, "Their outreach to small businesses has been tremendous. We are honored to be the beneficiary of their small business award and look forward to growing our relationship with SAIC."

Carahsoft will support J3 Consulting in providing Amazon, Azure, and GCP cloud services, while TD Synnex will assist with IBM cloud services.

"Carahsoft has invested a lot of time and effort in supporting us and helping us participate in a deal this size," said Peter Cipriano, J3 Consulting CIO. "We look forward to growing our relationship with Carahsoft across their entire portfolio of cloud and SaaS products."

Jones-Ledford said this partnership with SAIC, combined with the collaboration with Carahsoft and TD Synnex, enables J3 Consulting to qualitatively support the Treasury Department's IT modernization journey and to expand its presence in the cloud services market.

"We are excited about the opportunities ahead and remain committed to delivering exceptional services and solutions to our clients," she said.
