It's been 20 years of division and hatred. I'm about loving your neighbor. Let's get our nation back. Let's believe again. It's time to have faith again. I started in 15th place, and I expect to finish in the top four or five in Iowa. I can win this race. I have a pathway to victory.”

Since appearing at more than 200 events in Iowa and running an aggressive advertising campaign, Binkley's campaign has been gaining traction both in the amount of people coming to his events and in polling, including fifth place in a youth straw poll conducted by the Iowa Secretary of State.

Presidential candidate Ryan Binkley wins over voters everywhere he goes in Iowa.

“We were so discouraged with pollsters. We would say, my candidate isn’t on your list!” exclaimed Betty Mueller of Postville, Iowa. “We are going to speak for Ryan at our precinct on caucus night. This is the first time I’ve offered to do this for a candidate. We are definitely going to cast our vote for Ryan. I really like what I saw. If God told him to run, you just never know.”

“Although we’ve not met Mr. Binkley, we feel that we know his heart,” said Bruce Mueller of Postville, Iowa. “Selecting Ryan Binkley as our candidate to support has been a tough one. We truly believe that President Donald J. Trump had the country headed in the right direction. There are just too many dramas currently being thrown at him to think that he will be allowed to be the leader that this great nation needs going forward.”
