President and CEO of The DCRO Institute*

Mr. Mulder is a veteran board member for international companies in rapidly evolving markets; his current boards include STX Group, a global environmental commodity trader, and Digital Divide Data, an artificial intelligence data annotation company serving major autonomous driving and agriculture companies. Previously he served on the board of several companies within the technology, agriculture, and renewable energy sectors. He earned his MSc in chemical engineering from Delft University of Technology, is a graduate of Harvard Business School's advanced management program, and holds the GCB.D designation in ESG from Competent Boards.

"I know that Jan-Maarten was very thoughtful in choosing which cyber risk governance credential to pursue, and we are honored that someone of his stature chose ours," said David R. Koenig, QRD®, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "Jan-Maarten will continue to have a growing impact in his board service and we look forward to his using the knowledge from our programs in that critical work."

The Certificate in Cyber Risk GovernanceSM is awarded to those who have completed an extensive education program led by a global suite of board members, leading C-suite technology executives, law enforcement, and intelligence experts, all with deep knowledge of technology and cyber. Candidate knowledge is validated by evaluation across all subjects covered.

"This is a great and informative program touching on all relevant aspects of cyber risk and security as it relates to effective governance and board oversight,” said Mr. Mulder.

The fundamental Duty of Care for directors around risk is to ensure that our organizations take risks well in pursuit of our goals and ambitions. This course furthers the fulfillment of that duty.
