leading global authority in investment immigration, proudly offers the Malta Citizenship-by-Investment Program, an elite pathway to European Union citizenship.

Starting with a minimum investment of around $700,000, the official Maltese program is renowned as one of the most prestigious EU citizenship opportunities available.

Astons makes this program even more attractive by offering a Streamlined Turnkey Solution, ensuring a thorough and swift preliminary assessment within 24 hours to accurately gauge clients' prospects, and Astons backs their preliminary review results with their service fee.

"Malta's program represents the pinnacle of European citizenship opportunities," says Alena Lesina, a citizenship, residency, and real estate investment expert at Astons' US office. "It's not just about obtaining a second passport; it's about opening doors to a life of freedom and opportunity across the European Union."

This official program offers residency leading to citizenship within 1-3 years, granting comprehensive EU rights including living, movement, work, and study. One of the program's unique features is its fully remote application process, which allows clients to complete all necessary steps without the requirement for physical presence in Malta. This flexibility caters to the needs of busy HNW global investors, ensuring a seamless and efficient path to citizenship.

Astons, an original 2014 Maltese CIP Agent and among the first representatives for the Maltese program, brings years of experience and expertise to the table to help clients sail smoothly through the application process. As a specialized real estate broker for Malta, Astons also provides clients with access to exclusive property investments, further enhancing the attractiveness of the program. "Our clients benefit from our in-depth knowledge of the Maltese real estate market, ensuring their investments are not only secure but also lucrative," adds Lesina.

Astons' role as a licensed program agent underscores its commitment to providing compliant, ethical, and successful investment immigration solutions. The firm's legacy as a pioneer in representing the Maltese program attests to its longstanding expertise and reputation in the field.
