

The Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation Announces 2024 Gerry Mulligan Jazz Challenge

High School Musicians Can Enter & Win Cash Prizes Plus a New Saxophone

DARIEN, CONNECTICUT, UNITED STATES, January 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Annual "Gerry Mulligan Jazz Challenge" has been announced by the Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation. In 2024, high school musicians are being asked to upload their video playing one of Gerry Mulligan's most famous compositions, "Line for Lyons." In addition to lead sheets for students, there will also be charts (for every instrument) and an educational video available for teachers - for free. The contest runs from January 15 - March 22. Winners will be announced on April 1 in honor of Jazz Appreciation Month and Gerry's birthday (April 6).

Foundation Board Member and Music Professor Ted Hogarth explains that the melody and chords are provided so high school musicians can learn the melody and perform the song regardless of what instrument they play.

Saxophonist Alexa Tarantino, a professional musician and scholarship recipient from the Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation adds, "Gerry Mulligan's Jazz Challenge is an incredible platform for students to study Gerry's legacy! For students to have free access to his music and a platform to share their performance is truly a one-of-a-kind opportunity, and it's a testament to Gerry and Franca Mulligan's commitment to inspiring and educating the next generation of jazz musicians."

While Gerry Mulligan popularized the use of the baritone saxophone as a solo instrument,

Austin Falvey Won a New Selmer Saxophone for his 2022 Performance in the Gerry Mulligan Jazz Challenge

students can submit “Line for Lyons” on the instrument of their choice. High school musicians must upload their recorded video on YouTube and share the link in their entry form at www.gerrymulligan.org. A team of professional musicians will judge high school musicians on sound, technique, intonation and presentation.

Franca Mulligan, President of the Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation says, “This is an exciting time of year for the Foundation because we can introduce a new audience to Gerry’s music. He would be so pleased.” And while Gerry has adoring admirers worldwide, some of his most famous were Rolling Stones Drummer Charlie Watts who credits Gerry for becoming a musician and Former President Bill Clinton, who said, “No one ever played the horn like he did, and no one ever will.”

The Grand Prize of a Selmer Saxophone - Gerry’s favorite instrument - will be awarded for the best entry. Thousands of dollars in grants will also be awarded to first and second-place winners.
