

Launch of the Scathingly Humorous Adult Novel

AVENTURA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Accidental Houseguest is a comedy and satirical action-adventure read, that follows the misadventures of Gerald Owen. Gerald Owen is the former President of WarmBodyJobs.com, an Internet Job Board for candidates who have neither skills nor talent. WarmBodyJobs.com becomes a cult success on social media until Gerald's partner, Marty, embezzles the company's tax payments and vanishes to a non-extradition-island, leaving Gerald to take the rap.

To avoid prison, Gerald jumps bail and flees to Miami. To board an earlier plane, he switches tickets with Arnold Puffin, an undercover DEA agent, whom he finds lying unconscious in the men's washroom. Puffin has seduced the daughter of a reputed mob boss and has been invited as a guest to stay at his oceanfront mansion in Miami.

Mistaken for Puffin, Gerald is chauffeured in a Rolls to the home of Vincent Campari. Fortuitously, the daughter is stranded in Paris, so Gerald takes on Puffin's identity. Meanwhile, DEA agents mistakenly believe that Gerald is their undercover agent and go out of their way to protect him as he enjoys sexual favors and attempts on his life. All is great until the IRS and the real Arnold Puffin turn up... just for things to get more fun and messed up at the same time.

The Accidental Houseguest is a satire, that mocks the online recruiting industry, the IRS, FBI, DEA, the Miami lifestyle, and just about everything else.”

About the Author - Don Firth

Don Firth was born in Northern England. He now lives in Miami after a brief 14-year stay over in Canada. He is currently the CEO of <http://JobsInLogistics.com>, the leading online job board for the supply chain industry. Previously, he held positions of SVP Logistics for two supermarket chains and was a Partner in the logistics practices of PwC and Deloitte. He was the principal author of two best-selling books on Logistics. Neither was deemed funny.
