Boxer Property is also pleased to announce the promotion of Mark Fenech to Director of Business Process. Mark joined Boxer after completing his degree at Florida Atlantic University. Since joining Boxer, he has performed several roles in operations, including Property Management and Project Management, providing him with a unique insight into Boxer's business operation across 15M square feet of commercial buildings. The newly created role will be to lead the on-going investment and implementation of new technology and business processes that aim to improve operational efficiencies and business processes. His role is crucial in helping Boxer better serve their over 8,000 customers and like, the new CTO, to lead efforts across other affiliated ventures.

Boxer President, Justin Segal, commented "both these roles speak to the importance we hold in strong leadership and promoting within. I'm delighted that Robert and Mark have accepted these very important roles and I know they will continue to deliver, along with our other leaders, an exceptional level of service to our customers."
