

Brother-Sister Duo DORSTEN Set To Release To The River EP MARCH 29

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, January 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phoenix, AZ brother-sister duo Sophie and Alex Dorsten, known collectively as Dorsten are set to release their EP, To The River, March 29, 2024. The five-track EP showcases Sophie's gorgeous vocals, reminiscent of Florence Welsh, as they soar effortlessly over folky, guitar driven baselines. "This EP signifies our growth from childhood to adulthood, and the life experiences along the way" says the duo. "We are so excited to share these songs that we've crafted with time and love."

To The River was produced by Alex Dorsten and recorded in his home studio. In September, the anthemic title track, "To The River" (listen HERE) The track was produced, mixed and mastered by Alex Dorsten premiered on Americana Highways who said the siblings, "...create emotionally powerful and haunting songs, and this one is a fine, characteristic example. Nice layered playing and a steady rhythm pin it down." The song features Sophie on vocals and guitar; Alex on guitar, drums and cymbals.

The duo will release their second single, "Vernazza" on January 19, a song about the transition into adulthood. Says the duo, "We wrote this song after a visit to Vernazza, Italy. Being there in all its beauty we realized that time moves so fast. Growing up brings so many overwhelming feelings, knowing that time is passing you by. In an instant you're no longer a child. You're an adult now and you must make decisions about your life so you can reach your goals without letting self-doubt stop you."

Dorsten's music is regularly played around the world including Radio TFSC, Radio WigWam, Heart
