

Realty Associates of Houston Welcomes Susana Sarvis as President

Realty Associates (a Latter & Blum Company), an independently-owned real estate brokerage, proudly announces Susana Sarvis as president.

HOUSTON, TX, USA, January 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A native Houstonian and former educator, Sarvis earned a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership and transitioned from educating children to educating real estate professionals and clients alike. Before joining Realty Associates, Sarvis served as a Sales Manager for Compass, where she opened two offices in Houston and managed agents across an expansive region, directing agents and teams from the heart of the city within the loop to Brenham and College Station. With over 14 years of expertise in brokerage operations, management, and real estate as a Texas Licensed broker, she also possesses a strong background in technology implementations and transitions gained from her tenure at John Daugherty, Realtors and Corcoran Prestige Realty (formerly Krueger Real Estate).

Susana Sarvis - President Realty Associates

"With a passion for helping others reach their goals and a natural leader, Susana brings invaluable qualities that align seamlessly with our vision for success," says Lacey Conway, president of Latter & Blum.

Sarvis is a graduate of the Compass Masters Program and the Texas Realtor Leadership Program. She has been recognized as a John Daugherty, Realtors Department of the Year Award Recipient, a Krueger Real Estate Top Producer, and NRG's Top 20 Under 40 Award Recipient. Sarvis has also served as a member of various HAR Committees and has taught CE for HAR.com.

"Stepping into the role of president with Realty Associates, my enthusiasm is fueled by the prospect of cultivating our agents' businesses," Sarvis said. "I am eager to foster growth, empower our agents, and transform aspirations into achievements in the dynamic world of real estate."
