Songs & Poems from a Yielded Heart

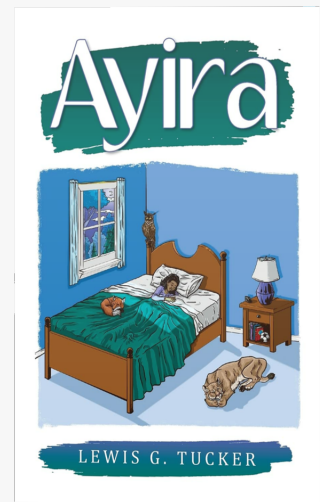

Vander Wege unveils her latest book "Songs and Poems from a Yielded Heart", a collection of emotionally charged poems and songs born from the crucible of difficult life situations. Vander Wege discovered solace and comfort in crafting poetic prayers during challenging times, and her creations found a home in numerous Christian periodicals.

Each poem and song serve as a testament to the author's resilience and unwavering faith. Vander Wege's ability to distill complex emotions into poetic expressions resonates deeply, providing readers with a literary sanctuary where they can find comfort, hope, and spiritual reflection.

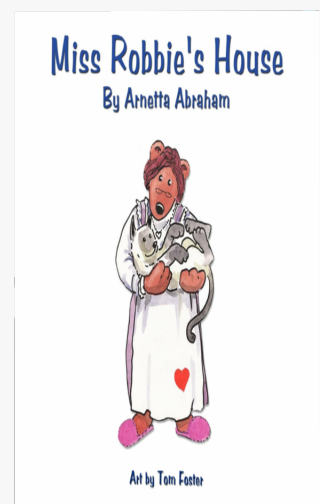

Lewis G. Tucker takes readers into the magical world of "Ayira", a captivating children's chapter book that follows Ayira's journey as her cherished stuffed animals, representing her diverse heritage, magically come to life after a moving truck accident. Together, they embark on a quest, finding refuge in the mountains and forming a special bond.

The story takes a thrilling turn during Ayira's Junior Ranger test, where a pact is made with a special egg, granting her newfound talents. The narrative gracefully concludes as Ayira, filled with profound gratitude, expresses her heartfelt appreciation to her dear animals. In this moment of reflection, Ayira envisions the promising horizon that lies ahead—an exciting new chapter in her life, brimming with the infusion of remarkable talents bestowed upon her by her magical companions.

"Miss Robbie's House" by Arnetta Abraham ignites young imaginations being the first installment of an exciting series showcasing a variety of animal breeds. These dynamic stories explore the themes of love, care, and tolerance within a diverse group of animals.

As the characters embark on their journey, they exhibit a protective nature toward their friends, navigate through amicable squabbles, and glean important lessons about gratitude for the Creator, the significance of family, and the value of friendship. As young readers delve into the vibrant world crafted by Arnetta Abraham, they will find themselves immersed in the animals' heartfelt journey, where each adventure unfolds as a testament to the universal desires for safety, thrill, affection, and joy.

Through the author's skillful storytelling, children are invited to explore a realm where the characters' quests resonate with the core emotions that shape the human experience, fostering a connection that transcends the boundaries between imagination and reality.

Sabrina Ali takes readers for a thrilling ride through unexplored realms with “The Face of Deception”, her coming-of-age novel set in a world with unexpected twists and turns.

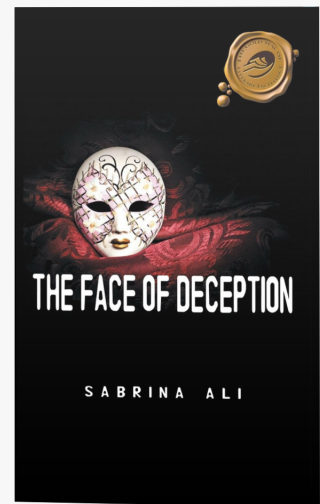

The story follows Sarah, who is caught between the influences of her East Indian mother and Irish father, as she navigates the complexities of her dual heritage. Her mother's strict control clashes with her father's encouragement to enjoy life's pleasures. A lingering message from her mother, "If anything bad happens to the people around you, it's probably your fault", adds a layer of responsibility to Sarah's journey.

In “The Face of Deception”, the narrative shifts from ordinary teenage scenarios to a compelling tale of real-life challenges, entwined with lies, deceit, and betrayal. The arrival of a malicious character disrupts Sarah and her friends' lives, leading them into a complex maze of challenges.
