

Keyboardist/Songwriter Neal Rosner Releases New Album "Kentucky"

ASHEVILLE, NC, USA, January 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The new album by Neal Rosner titled "Kentucky" chronicles the artist's 12-year residency in Madisonville, KY. Songs were written between 1972 -2023. Engineered by Steve Baker, a small studio with a big heart, the album is divided into 2 parts: Plain (secular) and With Peanut (semi-religious).

Neal plays keyboards, some percussion and vocals. Some terrific local musicians are featured on the album like guitarists Boscoe France, Alonzo Pennington.

Neal Rosner - Kentucky

Says Neal, "I especially like doing the harmonies. When you sing with yourself you often have a good vocal blend."

Songs are written about past and present events...

"Micajah": USA first serial killers,

"The Radical": SLA Shootout in LA 1974

"Red and Blue": written after the 2016 election...political divisions and the curse of social media

"Le Cirque Des Enfants": Children's Circus song.

"What is God/ Seed of Abraham": we are all one.

Line-up:

Neal Rosner: keyboards, bass and keyboard, percussion, vocals

Steve Baker: engineer, co-producer, percussion.

Barb Rosner: backup vocals, spoken word.

Alonzo Pennington: guitar

Boscoe France: guitar

James Dillingham: guitar

In support of Neal Rosner's new release he will be playing gigs in the Chicago area with his prog-rock ensemble McLuhan.
